

The Bureaucratic Experience,

By Ralph P. Hummel,

St. Martin's Press,, New York, NY, 1982. Soft Cover/Good/Some Shelf Wea. Book Condition: Very Good/No Marks. 2nd Edition, Softcover. This is a Very Good Copy aside from a former owner's name/address stamp lightly printed on the half-title page, the book is very clean and solid. It is a genuinely interesting book--which probably explains why it went to several editions--filled with some original thinking. Hummel views bureaucracy as a :culture" (eg. as in 'political culture') unto itself. Thus, it is a culture of inter-active humans wherein language, psychology, rules, behaviour and politics have real meaning. A fine book. The third edition contains some modest adjustments in Hummel's thinking but the core ideas and concepts are as set forth in this, the Second Edition.
