Excerpt: . . . full appreciation of the privileges and benefits which they have inherited and which they today enjoy, and are remiss in the exercise of the duties and obligations which society in general rightfully expects from them. Neither is the problem likely to be solved nor the desired goals reached if attention is directed solely, or chiefly, to the adult members of our body politic. To nationalize individuals takes time. Education must be begun in the early days of life. Just as the twig is bent the trees inclined. Or, to combine the wisdom of Solomon with that of Pope: Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it. It is the child and the youth who most of all need to be Americanized. If the on-coming generation of boys and girls can be imbued with right ideals and ideas and habits respecting the obligations of citizenship, the future of our nation is assured. If the on-coming generation of boys and girls be unguided in their thoughts, attitudes, and conduct regarding governmental principles and social relationships, confusion in the adjustment of individuals to individuals is likely to be heaped on confusion. The resulting effects on our national stability will, to say the least, tend to become uncertain and, in all probability, subversive of our cherished principles and forms of democracy. It, therefore, behooves the friends of America to look well to the civic and...
